

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY Policy Statement

Emeco is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy working environment for all of Emeco's employees, contractors and customers.

Emeco will ensure that:

- Emeco complies with all applicable occupational health and safety laws;
- employees and contractors are provided with the information, instruction, training and supervision necessary to ensure their safety and the safety of those whom they supervise or with whom they work;
- employees and contractors are provided with the resources, facilities, equipment and protective clothing with its obligation and commitment to provide a safe working environment;
- employees are involved in the management of occupational health and safety issues and the improvement of Emeco's occupational health and safety performance;
- occupational health and safety systems and procedures are implemented which assist Emeco to discharge its legal obligations and enable it to monitor and assess its occupational health and safety performance.
- Emeco will strive to continually improve its occupational health and safety performance to reflect best practice in its occupational health and safety procedures, systems and standards.

Employees and contractors of Emeco must at all times take reasonable care for their own safety and health at work and for the safety and health of others who may be affected by their actions. Employees and contractors must comply with all of the systems and procedures in their workplace which have been implemented by Emeco to ensure their workplace is safe and healthy.

This policy will be reviewed every two years to ensure it remains relevant to the needs of Emeco and its stakeholders. We will be successful when we achieve our objective of zero harm.
